Employment in the real estate industry is expected to increase by 161,400 jobs to reach almost 1.6 million in 2022. This increase is larger than the 59,900 jobs added between 2002 and 2012.

ONLINE MBA IN REAL ESTATE

The Marylhurst University online MBA in Real Estate delivers an advanced business education along with a comprehensive look at successful real estate practices and principles. This dynamic degree explores core business concepts, such as marketing, leadership, finance, ethics, resource management, strategy and communication. The focus then shifts to real estate and includes a current analysis of commercial and residential mortgages, property management, asset management and other real estate essentials.

Our program is designed to help you learn the high-level business acumen to redefine your career in real estate. Develop industry-specific critical thinking skills that can translate into new opportunities for career growth. Enhance your professional profile with an advanced degree from a national leader in adult education. Become a leader in your field with a targeted MBA in real estate from Marylhurst University.

THREE AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION:

Finance
Focus on the financial aspects of successful real estate strategy and operation, including market analysis, valuation and investment. Students will learn how to use MS Excel to perform the critical financial analysis needed for a successful career as a real estate analyst.

Development
Concentrate on proactive design, location evaluation, partnerships and trusts, the role of sustainable initiatives in the development process and other major factors in contemporary real estate development.

Management
Learn the necessary tactics to successfully manage assets, properties and organizations. Students will examine asset, property, and brokerage management to develop a strong organizational leadership skill set through training in personnel management, negotiation, sustainable practices and client trust account management.

ACCREDITATION

Marylhurst is regionally accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. Regional accreditation is the measurement the U.S. Department of Education uses to ensure that schools meet rigorous and up-to-date standards of education. Additionally, all Marylhurst business programs are designed to meet the accreditation standards of the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE). Marylhurst’s Master of Business Administration is accredited by the IACBE.

FINANCIAL AID

Every student who meets the requirements and demonstrates the drive and resolve to complete one of the Marylhurst accelerated online programs should have the opportunity to do so. Marylhurst students often qualify for scholarships and other federal student aid. Applications are free, and students must meet the following requirements:

1. Be enrolled as a degree-seeking student
2. Be a U.S. citizen, national or permanent resident alien
3. Enroll at least half time
4. Be in good standing on previous student loans

Marylhurst also offers a military service scholarship. The scholarship amount is based on a student’s degree program and enrollment status. In addition, many companies offer a tuition reimbursement plan to their employees. Be sure to contact your enrollment advisor at 866.278.3965 for more information.

TRANSFER CREDITS

Admitted MBA students can transfer up to three applicable business courses (maximum of 12 credits) earned from a regionally accredited institution within the last five years. Students must provide an official transcript of graduate credits. Only classes with a “B” (3.00) or higher will be eligible for transfer consideration. Marylhurst University evaluates all transfer credits on an individual basis; Students may be asked to submit a course syllabus to determine transfer eligibility.
